21 INTRODUCTION

22 Plaintiff is a California-based company engaged in the apparel industry as a textile converter of 23 imported and domestic fabrications. Plaintiff creates, or purchases and obtains, exclusive rights 24 to unique two-dimensional graphic artworks for use on textiles and garments, and those textiles 25 and garments are transacted primarily in the fashion industry. Plaintiff owns these designs in 26 exclusivity and makes sales of products bearing these designs for profit. Plaintiff's business is 27 predicated on its ownership of these designs and it spends a considerable amount of time and 28 resources creating and obtaining top-quality, marketable and aesthetically-appealing designs.

1 Customers of Plaintiff, including possibly DOE defendants named herein, take design samples
2 with the understanding and agreement that they will only utilize Plaintiff to reproduce said
3 designs should they wish to do so, and will not seek to make minor changes to Plaintiff's 4 proprietary work to reproduce the same elsewhere, yet use those designs in furtherance of their 5 business in violation of both their contractual agreement with Plaintiff and Plaintiff's copyrights.
6 No other party is authorized to make sales of product bearing Plaintiff's proprietary designs
7 without express permission from Plaintiff. This action is brought to recover damages for direct, 8 vicarious and contributory copyright infringement arising out of the misappropriation of 9 Plaintiff's exclusive designs by the Defendants, and each of them.
